

Privacy

This information is about your right to privacy.

When is it OK for staff to come into my room?

This means that staff and other people must ask you if it is OK to come into your room.

It is okay for staff to come into your room if you need their help.

It is also okay for staff to enter your room without asking you if there is an emergency, like someone is sick or there is a fire.

